2 British, 2 German Cruisers Lost In Fight Along Norwegian Coast

BULLETINS

By UNITED PRESS
NEW YORK — A short wave broadcast of the British Broadcasting Corporation picked up early this afternoon by the Columbia Broadcasting System said Germany had lost fourteen ships and Great Britain three ships in the battle off the coast of Norway.

STOCKHOLM—The Stockholm radio reported tonight that the British fleet has forced an entrance into the Skagerrak and threatens to shell Oslo unless the Germans evacuate and that the biggest naval clash since the battle of Jutland is in prospect.

British warships were said to have gained Oslofjord and to have sent an ultimatum to the city that they would turn their guns on the Norwegian capital unless the Germans left by a certain set hour. Residents of the city were reported fleeing in panic before the threat of the shelling.

A terrific naval battle was in progress in the Kattgat tonight.

STOCKHOLM—The newspaper Aftonbladet said in an unconfirmed dispatch today that 200 Norwegian troops were killed or wounded in heavy fighting against the Germans at Elverum, northeast of Hamar, the last reported temporary capital. The dispatch said the German casualties were heavy.

KING IS MISSING
BERLIN—Authorized sources today said that German forces have occupied Hamar, the provincial seat of government to which Norwegian authorities fled from Oslo yesterday. The sources said that the present whereabouts of King Haakon of Norway were not known. It was said also that the British and French legation in Oslo had followed the Norwegian government to Hamar and that their present whereabouts also were not known.

LEAVES CANCELLED
BRUSSELS—Belgian military leaves were canceled after an extraordinary meeting of the cabinet today.

CLAIM INDEPENDENCE
REYKJAVIK—Iceland declared its virtual independence from Denmark today when parliament authorized the government to take over the prerogatives of King Christian.

The decision of the Icelandic althing or parliament—the world's oldest parliamentary body which dates from the ninth century—was the first reaction to German invasion of Denmark from this northern outpost which is joined to Denmark through a unique type of mutual monarchy.

By UNITED PRESS
LONDON—Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax says fight for Norway goes on regardless of any Norwegian peace negotiations; two British destroyers admitted lost at Narvik; sinking of at least one German cruiser at Bergen claimed.

PARIS—Reynaud government faces confidence vote on Norwegian coup; French fleet turned over to British for Norwegian operations.

STOCKHOLM—Swedish reserves called up; tight censorship imposed; furious air and sea battle between Allies and Germans reported along Norway's coast.

BERLIN—Loss of cruisers Karlruhe and Bluecher admitted; claimed that four British battleships, two cruisers, three heavy cruisers and two transports hit by German bombers; deny damage to German warships at Bergen.

AMSTERDAM—Dutch strengthen frontier forces.

By UNITED PRESS
Germany and the Allied powers battled today for control of the North Sea and the most important key to victory in Europe's spreading war.

RODOLFO CAFFARO, tenor, who with Irma Sheean, soprano, will assist the Shrine Band and Chanters in presenting a free public concert at the high school auditorium Saturday night.

3 SOLOISTS IN BAND CONCERT

Two Vocalists, Trumpeter Will Assist Band And Chanters Saturday Night

There will be three soloists in the concert to be given Saturday night at the high school auditorium by the Ben Ali Temple Shrine Band and Chanters; it was revealed Wednesday.

In addition to Irma Sheean, soprano, and Rudy Caffaro, tenor, the concert also will present Jack Sprigg, trumpeter, in featured numbers.

This is according to John Simpson, master of El Dorado Lodge No. 26, F. & A. M., which is sponsoring the visit of the Shrine band and assisting artists.

"We wish to give emphasis again," Mr. Simpson said, "to the point that this is a free public concert. There is no admission charge and everyone is welcome to attend."

Although the vocalists are well known in central California, Mr. Sprigg is better known on the east coast than in the west. In the east, he was a featured trumpet soloist with Arthur Prior's band and with several other high ranking organizations and he is rapidly winning supporters on the west coast.

His Placerville appearance will be the first he has made with the Ben Ali Temple Shrine band.

Robert N. Fenton will lead the band in the concert and the chanters will be under the direction of Clifford Mott.

REHEARSALS UNDER WAY FOR THREE-ACT CLUB PLAY

Rehearsals for the three-act play, "Here Comes the Prince," to be given at the Shakespeare Clubhouse on May 2 are in progress with the cast diligently working to perfect it.

Terry Donovan is in love with Carol and never suspects that Joan loves him. For Carol is a glamorous girl and Joan is just a good pal. When Carol learns that a Prince is coming, she promptly gives Terry the air. She dreams dreams of European castles and bowing flunkies. Joan comes to Terry's aid so there is plenty of fun that follows. For Terry is always making blunders. And if you are interested in ornithology, the study of birds, just listen to Professor Chipper try to give a discourse on them to an uninterested audience. Then, of course, there is the sentimental butler, the impetuous foreign beauty, Sonya, that peppy, lovable granny, her son Fred Halliday, and the ambitious social climber who would like to marry her daughter to the Prince.

Dewey Is Leading Sen. Vandenberg

Democratic Primaries In Nebraska, Illinois Give Roosevelt Strong Vote

OMAHA, Neb., (UP)—Nebraska Republicans prefer Thomas E. Dewey to Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg as a presidential candidate, returns from yesterday's preferential primary indicated today.

President Roosevelt, running unopposed in the Democratic primary, had polled 6,000 more votes than Dewey, according to returns from yesterday's preferential primary indicated today.

The ballots were being counted very slowly and the returns were far from complete.

GARNER TRAILS
CHICAGO, (UP)—Illinois Democrats gave President Roosevelt almost a seven to one preference over Vice President John N. Garner in Tuesday's presidential primaries, increasing returns showed today. His vote was nearly twice that received by Thomas E. Dewey, unopposed on the G. O. P. presidential preference ballot.

Dewey, 38, New York district attorney who won a solid nominating delegation last week in the Wisconsin primary, polled slightly better than 75 per cent of the G. O. P. primary vote.

Mr. Roosevelt, whose name was entered in the primary although he had not committed himself on a third term, polled 200,000 more than the combined votes of Garner and Dewey.

Frances Byrnes' Essay Gets Second Prize In District Competition

The American Legion Auxiliary, at its meeting Tuesday night, initiated four new members with the assistance of its drill team, and had as visitors at the meeting several district officers.

Mrs. Merl Wright, district Americanism chairman, announced that the essay of Miss Frances Byrnes, which had won first prize in the local essay contest sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary, had won second prize in the district competition.

New members initiated are Dorothy Armstrong, Ruth McConnell, and Betty and Frances Stinger.

Mrs. Ollie Irwin, of Placerville, district president, was in attendance and in addition to Mrs. Wright, Alice Martin, district chairman for better films; and Verna Preston, junior chairman for the district, also were present.

Mrs. Jessie Watts and the members of the Junior American Legion Auxiliary contributed several entertainment numbers to the evening program and an announcement by Mrs. Irwin called attention to the district meeting to be held in this city Sunday.

Nichols Home Fire Scene

Second Floor And Roof Badly Damaged In Blaze On Wednesday Morning

The two-story frame dwelling of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nichols, on Broadway in Upper Placerville, was damaged to the extent of about $2,000 about 11 o'clock Wednesday morning.

According to Fire Chief Mark Tetrault, the fire appeared to have originated from a common stove pipe installed in such a way that it came into contact with a joist and other wood work in the house.

It was possible, Mr. Tetrault said, that the blaze had been smoldering for some time before it was discovered.

Firemen were able to confine the fire to the second floor and roof of the building and the estimate of the loss included structural damage and the loss of clothing and furnishings on the second floor.

Mrs. Anderson Called To S. F. On Tuesday

Mrs. L. J. Anderson left Tuesday for San Francisco in response to word reporting that her daughter, Mrs. Robert Ayers, formerly Coralee Anderson, is a patient at a San Francisco hospital.

In a delicate state of health, Mrs. Ayers attended funeral services at Pennington Sunday for her husband's grandmother and during the course of the services suffered a fall. Her peculiar state of health just at this time has complicated the seriousness of the results of the fall, it is understood.

Mrs. Helen Neal, mother adviser of Placerville Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, was taken suddenly ill Monday morning and is a patient at a Sacramento hospital. Wednesday it was reported her condition was much improved. We learn that Mrs. Neal has resigned her position in the offices of the Tahoe Greyhound Stages and will make her home in the future in Sacramento coming to Placerville when able to attend the Rainbow Assembly meetings as they occur.

PIONEER TAKEN AT CAPITAL

Mrs. Anna Borland, Who Died Monday, Borne To Rest On Wednesday

Funeral services were held at Sacramento Wednesday morning in the Miller & Skelton mortuary chapel, for Mrs. Anna Borland, 83, a pioneer in El Dorado and Placer Counties. Burial was at the family plot at Auburn cemetery.

Mrs. Borland died on Monday. Mrs. Borland's parents, the late Robert and Sarah Hume, came around Cape Horn to California and settled in Coloma in 1862.

Mrs. Borland married the late James Borland in 1881. For a time James Borland and his parents owned the old Cary House in Placerville and the old Freeman Hotel in Auburn, which was burned, and later acquired the Borland Hotel in Auburn.

A native of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Borland moved to Sacramento in 1905. She was a past noble grand of the Rebekahs.

The survivors are a son, Leland H. Borland of Sacramento and a brother, John W. Hume of Coloma.

Rev. Gordon A. McCrane of the Fremont Presbyterian Church officiated at the funeral services.

Caroline Jay and Garret Cassidy love each other, but because Garret is a shiftless poolroom loafer, Caroline's mother has forbidden her to see him. Mrs. Jay, superintendent of the Avon Home for the Aged, wants Caroline to encourage Henry Avon, whose wealthy mother is head of the Home's board of directors. One afternoon Caroline meets Garret secretly and they get married. On the way back to town they strike and kill an old man, Pop Whistler, who has just run away from the Home. Frightened, they leave him lying by the roadside. Caroline goes home, keeps a date with Henry Avon, and plans to meet Garret at the chapel at the Home at midnight. Mrs. Jay, meanwhile, gets news of the death of Pop Whistler, and hears of the unknown young couple that ran him down. Later that night, she sees Garret loitering about the chapel and she locks him in. It is a hot, sultry night, and an odd unrest hangs over the Home.

CHAPTER XXX

NO ONE knew afterwards exactly what time the first whisp of smoke curled out of Pop Whistler's room.

Mrs. Greene was nodding sleepily at her desk in the infirmary. Mrs. Jay was in her apartment on the first floor. The old people were snatching their first sleep as a cooling breeze fluttered in through the windows.

Someone on the second floor near Pop Whistler's room, stirred uneasily in light sleep. He got out of bed and moved to the door. There was no mistaking the smoke and strong odor of burning wood.

The frightened old man banged with his cane on the floor. He banged louder as panic seized him. Mrs. Greene heard him, as did the two old brothers whose rooms were next door.

Sudden activity sounded where there had been silence before.

Mrs. Jay heard her door open suddenly. "Come quick," Mrs. Greene screamed. "Pop Whistler's room is on fire."

"On fire?" Lurching from her chair, Mrs. Jay ran out into the hall. There was the acrid smell of smoke.

She rang the fire bell and then ran up the stairs to the second floor. Faint sounds of crackling wood sounded at the end of the hall in Pop Whistler's room. Mrs. Jay decided immediately to shut in the flames as much as possible and started at once to herd the old folks out.

"GET to the infirmary quickly," she said to Mrs. Greene. "Head the people to the fire escapes."

She sped to the third floor, pounded on doors in the quarters where the orderlies roomed. "There's fire in the house!" she said. "Hurry!"

Norway's King Is Missing

and aerial fleets—spread along the Norwegian coast and casualties piled up swiftly on both sides, with the operations still in a preliminary stage.

Germany admitted loss of two of its big warships, the 10,000 ton heavy cruiser Bluecher; and the 6,000 ton cruiser Karlsruhe.

Great Britain lost two destroyers, the Hunter and the Hardy, as an unsuccessful thrust was made against the Norwegian iron ore port of Narvik, which the Nazis captured yesterday after sinking two Norwegian naval vessels with loss of about 500 men.

News of the naval operations, in which the French fleet was put under British command, still was far from complete and it was emphasized in London dispatches that the Allied forces were carrying out a vast operation, designed to bottle up the Germans on the Norwegian coast and presumably to land expeditionary forces.

Two factors stood out in the German plans:

1. The occupation of Denmark was complete, giving Germany new and important aerial and submarine bases from which to strike at the Allies in the North Sea and at the British Isles.

2. The occupation of important Norwegian ports was complete and the German troops—apparently including several thousand transported by airplane—were moving rapidly northward in a tremendous effort to consolidate their gains before the Allies could counter-attack in force.

VIRGINIA WEIDLER AND FRANK MORGAN in "Henry Goes Arizona," at the Empire Theatre today and Thursday.

"HENRY GOES ARIZONA" EMPIRE OFFERING FOR TWO DAYS

The bill opening Wednesday on the Empire screen and continuing through Thursday offers satisfaction for "western" fans with the feature, "Henry Goes Arizona." Frank Morgan, Owen Davis, Jr., and Virginia Weidler have the principal parts with the child star coming in for exceptional attention.

The "western" role is not a new one for Frank Morgan, who is better known these days for his comedy portrayals, for Morgan at twenty years of age was a cowboy on a 68,000 ranch near Las Vegas, New Mexico.

He was "initiated" in tracking outlaws in real life as a member of a sheriff's posse that rode out of Las Vegas in the earlier days on the trail of two outlaws.

Coach L. A. Brown's Cougars chalked up their second victory of the high school league schedule Tuesday afternoon when they trimmed Sutter Creek high school, 26 to 2.

The game was played at the county fair grounds and saw Barrett, hurling for the Cougars, set the visitors down with only six scattered hits while his mates busted the apple legally twenty-three times.

These included a brace of home runs by Boggs, circuit swats by Killian and Rossi; three doubles by Ciribus and two-base swats by Johnson, White, Barrett, Rossi and Swesey.

Rossi had a grand day at bat, getting four for five, and Killian was up six times and hit safely on four occasions.

HI CHATTER

BY Bill Dillinger
OUR CORRESPONDENT

Whoopie! Boy, oh boy, oh boy! When our baseball team wins a game there's no doubt about it, as any Sutter Creek router will tell you. The Cougars led the "Thundering Herd" of Sutters through the slaughter house, to the tune of 26 to 2. We scored 11 runs in the first inning, and Sutter Creek got so confused they started sending in new catchers instead of pitchers.

Our next game will be here with Ione on Friday, and then a game with Jackson on Tuesday.

On Saturday, the tennis team takes on Jackson, and the boys are hoping to repeat last week's success.

The Mother-Daughter dinner, under the direction of Mrs. Swansborough, will be held on Friday night at 6:30, in the new high school cafeteria. The entertainment will be in charge of the Girls League, and judging from the contributions that the girls have been bringing in, they are expecting to break all records for attendance.

The sophomores proved a little too tough for the freshmen, who were eliminated in the first round of the Boys Senate softball games by a score of 5 to 0, and while credit is due to Grey and Drennan for their pitching, the real honors should go to the umpire, "Buck Smith" who risked death several times at the hands of the raging sophs by making decisions in favor of the lowly freshmen. The next game, between the juniors and seniors, will be held on Wednesday, and we're warning them ahead of time that they'd better get Man-Mountain Dean to umpire, or buy a stretcher for the ump.

The delegates to the Older Girls Conference at Richardson Springs are scheduled to report at the Girls League meeting on Thursday. Come on girls, "fess up."

Students are being registered for next year by their various class advisors, in order to determine next year's program, and to aid the student in getting the proper courses lined up, avoiding the usual last minute rush that leaves nobody satisfied.

The student body elections, tentatively scheduled for the 22nd or 23rd of April, are the main topic of discussion this week, with several aspirants circulating petitions for each job. Friday the petitions are to be turned in; on Monday the Board of Control will check them over; and after that the fight begins in earnest.

Campaign speeches will be aired on Thursday, at which time the candidates will attempt to impress the student body with their qualifications for the job. Oddly enough, these speeches are arranged for the commissioner of entertainment, and are brought forth under the guise of entertainment, even though, as one very nervous speaker remarked, while trying to quiet his knocking knees, "They call this entertainment!"

The long-postponed Honor Society meeting and initiation will be held on Tuesday night at Miss Harper's, at which time six new members will "get the works."

DESSERT WHIST PARTY
Episcopal Guild Hall Friday, Apr. 12, 1:30 p. m. Prizes and refreshments. a9-10.

This is a worthy cause sponsored by Miss Rashell Moscow, chairman of the teachers association, and E. G. Cheek, representing the Masonic Order, who have worked diligently to make this an outstanding event and who should have the cooperation of young and old alike. The admission is free and it will be time well spent to be there to encourage our younger generations in the better things of life.

The defendant asked for a ten-day stay of execution which was granted and the fine was paid on February 29th. He had been arrested by Captain A. H. Willard and Warden Al Sears, of the fish and game department.

Sabich has since been transferred to the Sacramento County squad of the state highway patrol.
